

Mission calls us to:

- a HEAL, reconcile and bind up wounds.
- b ADDRESS needs of the poor.
- c HELP people who are oppressed, hungry and suffering.

Mission allows us to:

- * Express our faith through action.
- * Collaborate and cooperate with others in our community.
- * Experience the joy of giving and receiving.
- * Join with others in mission locally, nationally and globally.

Connections

THE HEART OF MISSION AND SOCIAL JUSTICE AT FPCSR LIES WITH YOUTH SERVICES, THE HOMELESS AND HUNGRY AND RELATIONSHIPS WITH OUR PARTNERS IN MISSION.

-  MARIN ORGANIZING COMMITTEE
Engages the public sector in solving community problems to help find solutions for homelessness.
-  BREAD FOR THE WORLD
Advocates with the US Congress to improve our government's assistance to farmers in Africa and elsewhere living in poverty.
-  HOMEWARD BOUND
Provides job training, housing and support services for the homeless.

We invite you...

Everyone in the congregation is a part of these many expressions of care and concern. We invite you to participate in these efforts with your time, resources and talents.

YOUTH ON THE MOVE

Youth

FPCSR offers enriching community programs and opportunities for school students with service learning partners.

After School Enrichment

FPCSR has proudly adopted a local elementary school and offers after school enrichment programs to students in grades 1-4 from low income neighborhoods.

Volunteers

- > ART
- > COOKING
- > SCIENCE
- > TECHNOLOGY

Help lead after-school classes in subjects that students love!

HEAD START

We provide space to the Head Start child and family development program that provides education and social services to low income families.

MISSION PROGRAMS

Community

Blessing and being blessed by the homeless and hungry, it has been our privilege over many years at FPCSR to prepare food for and share meals with our many friends in the homeless community.

HOMELESS SERVICES

- > FPCSR fills a huge barrel with food every month and sends it to the San Francisco-Marín Food Bank.
- > FPCSR collects food for Thanksgiving Baskets that are distributed by our partner at the Ritter Center to needy families.

MILL STREET

Together with over 30 congregations meals are provided every evening. FPCSR provides a supper once a month for up to 55 homeless men.

R.E.S.T.

We join 20-30 congregations to offer food and shelter to homeless people nightly from Nov- April. FPCSR hosts the homeless every Monday night.

VOLUNTEER TEAMS

Partnerships

FPCSR helps local, national and international charitable organizations with direct assistance and financial support. FPCSR regularly donates space or provides reduced rent throughout the year for local non-profits.

MARIN INTERFAITH COUNCIL

Doing the work of social justice with local congregations.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH USA

FPCSR's annual offerings are made to Cents-Ability, Peacemaking, One Great Hour of Sharing, Christmas Joy and Worldwide Mission Workers.

PRESBYTERIAN DISASTER ASSISTANCE

Every year a FPCSR/PDA team travels anywhere in the country to help rebuild homes wherever natural disasters strike.
